About Rosemarkie

A peaceful seaside village with a remarkable past.

Welcome to Rosemarkie

A village with a long story

Rosemarkie has been an important settlement for more than a thousand years. Its early Christian and Pictish heritage is especially well represented in the carved stones preserved at Groam House Museum.

The village today

The High Street, sheltered beach and surrounding countryside make Rosemarkie a lovely place to explore at an unhurried pace. Fortrose, Chanonry Point and Fairy Glen are all close by.

11 Gowanbrae Guest Tip

Enjoy Rosemarkie itself. A walk along the shore and a little time in the village can be as rewarding as a longer day out.

SECTION 04

Things to Do Locally

Some of the best experiences on the Black Isle are right on the doorstep.

Place	What to enjoy
Rosemarkie Beach	A sheltered beach for rock pooling, beachcombing and paddling.
Fairy Glen	Woodland walk to two waterfalls; steps and muddy sections.
Rosemarkie Caves	Historic sea-cave coastline; check tides and conditions.
Groam House Museum	Pictish carved stones and the George Bain Collection.
Chanonry Point	Shore-based dolphin watching; sightings are never guaranteed.
Fortrose Cathedral & Harbour	Medieval ruins and a pleasant harbour stroll.

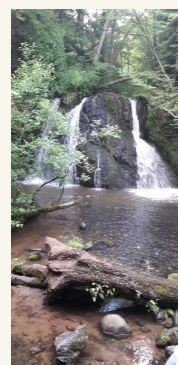

The shoreline beyond Caird's Cave becomes rough and can be impassable at high tide. Do not treat the entire cave coastline as an easy beach stroll.

11 Gowanbrae Guest Tip

Start locally. There is plenty to enjoy within a few minutes of the house.

A Taste of the Black Isle

Local flavours, favourite stops and a few simple pleasures.

Black Isle Brewery

Local produce

Our local favourites

Crofters is a favourite for breakfast, lunch and dinner, while Comforts Fish & Chips in Fortrose is ideal for an easy supper by the Moray Firth. For pastries, pies and cakes, Bakhoo's Bakery is well worth a visit, and Rosemarkie Beach Café is perfectly placed for a seaside stop.

Local produce

Look out for Scottish cheeses, Highland beef and venison, locally landed seafood, artisan breads and cakes, preserves, craft beers and spirits. A simple picnic can be every bit as memorable as a formal meal.

Black Isle producers

Black Isle Brewery, at Old Allangrange near Munlochy, has been making organic craft beer since 1998. Its farm setting, shop and visitor experience make it an enjoyable local stop. Black Isle Dairy at Rootfield Farm is particularly known for artisan ice cream made using milk from its own herd, together with yoghurt, fresh milk and other local produce.

11 Gowanbrae Guest Tip

Try something local. A relaxed breakfast, bakery stop, local ice cream or fish and chips by the water can be as much a part of the Black Isle experience as sightseeing.

The North Coast 500

One of Scotland's great touring routes, with selected sections within reach of 11 Gowanbrae.

Towards Ullapool

The North Coast 500 is a circular touring route of around 516 miles / 830 km, beginning and ending in Inverness. It links dramatic coast, mountains, villages and historic sites. Allow at least 5-7 days for the whole circuit.

From 11 Gowanbrae

You do not need to drive the entire route to enjoy it. Sections of the east coast, Wester Ross and the far north can be explored as individual day trips. Section 16 gives suggested scenic drives starting and finishing at 11 Gowanbrae.

11 Gowanbrae Guest Tip

Don't race the NC500. Choose a section, stop often and enjoy it properly.

Driving well on Highland roads

Motorhomes & larger vehicles

Official NC500 guidance advises that some roads are unsuitable for larger vehicles, including Bealach na Bà and the B869 Drumbeg route. Check current advice before travelling.

Travel responsibly

Use proper car parks and facilities, take litter away, respect communities and private land, and remember that these roads are part of everyday life for local people.

Beaches & Coastal Activities

The Moray Firth is part of everyday life in Rosemarkie.

Rosemarkie Beach

Chanonry Point

The caves along the coast have produced archaeological evidence of human activity over many centuries, including Iron Age and Pictish-period finds. Caird's Cave is an especially interesting example. See Section 4 for the suggested visit and coastal safety advice.

The Black Isle Show

One of the north of Scotland's major agricultural shows, held at Muir of Ord. Expect livestock, horses, competitions, displays, food, trade stands and plenty of Highland character.

Throughout the year

Also look out for village fairs, craft and produce markets, sporting events, classic vehicles, community celebrations and seasonal activities. Around Christmas and New Year, local notices are often the best source for smaller events and gatherings.
